You guys are bang on it within the hour. Unless you're really really really busy and then it's an hour and 10 minutes. So yeah, absolutely no compliant. 100% high fives all around. Take my money!"

Dan Darriba from RMS studios

I would recommend Jammed to anyone and everyone who has a studio and is looking to automate their bookings. Not just that Andy is fantastic. The customer support is second to none. Anytime I have an issue or query he is right there and emails me back pretty much always the same day. Often within the hour. This alone is worth the price of admission.

Ryan Bailey from On-Track Audio

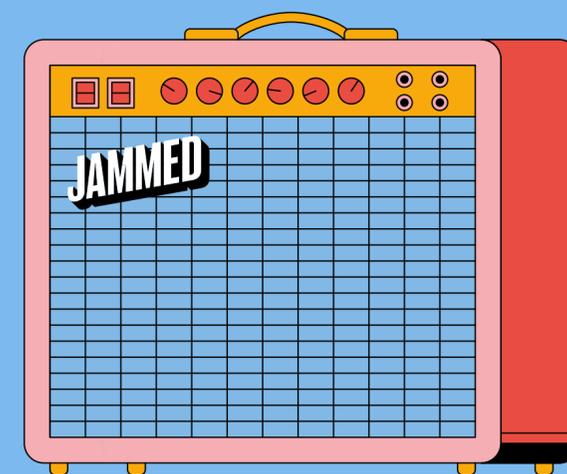

Amazing. Amazing! Andy is amazing! No, but seriously, it really really helped because we are obviously not into tech. So with our emails and all my questions, it was clear the way you guys were answering. It's clear. It's done. So yeah, incredibly incredibly great customer service, spot on.
